C.D.Jain College of Commerce Library established in 1962 with a collection of 400 books in a two cupboards two racks with five periodicals in a glass room. Now it has developed and expands enormously in all the aspects like book collection, readers staff and services enormously in support students and staff to fulfil the goals. Presently we have 55140 books and 46 periodicals. It is a central library.

Along with the overall development of the student and shaping his destiny, the Royal Sarathi Sarathi family believes in the upliftment of rural community in general and the downtrodden in particular. With this aim, the Sarathi has penned Mittard into rural living & inaccessible area of Maharashtra. Most of our students come from very poor families and are generally first generation learners. Our aim is to retain these students in the educational stream by providing them care and guidance and also of "E-Learning and Learning Scheme" for the needy.
